Alexandra Rollo, Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense in America.

MOMs is a grassroots movement of Americans fighting for public safety measures that protect people from gun violence. During her six years with the organization, Alex has helped in countless ways, including leading team meetings, collecting and sharing gun violence stats, working with partner organizations, and emceeding the annual Wear Orange event for National Gun Violence Awareness day. Outside her work with MOMs Demand Action, Alex is a Hoosier Women Forward alum and Administrator for the Mayor's Action Center.

Julia Vaughn, Executive Director, Common Cause Indiana.

As Executive Director, Julia Vaughn organizes and coordinates campaigns to build a better democracy in Indiana. Julia Vaughn has been an advocate working in the public interest for more than 30 years. Vaughn joined the staff of Common Cause/Indiana in 1994 and has served as the Policy Director since.

Since 2008 Vaughn has been the Project Director for the Common Cause Election Protection project in Indiana. The project focuses on ensuring that all eligible voters will be able to vote, and have their vote counted. The project targets both student and minority voters in several Indiana cities and involves recruiting, training and deploying voter advocates to polling places on Election Day, where they provide assistance to both voters and poll workers.
