MARCH E-VOTER

(APRIL FOOL'S VERSION)

A Time To Move On

by Susanne Gaudin, LWVIN Past President

I wanted to let all local League Presidents know (if you hadn't already heard) that after my first year as President of LWVIN, I have decided to hand the reins to 1st VP, Amy Olson Miller.

When I accepted the presidency, I tried to plan two years out and it looked like everything would fit nicely into that two year period.

As you all know things change and life happens. My husband decided to retire at the end of this spring teaching semester instead of next year - ending a 54 year teaching career!

The traveling, hobbies, projects and special family time we had planned for his retirement is now at hand - not in another year.

While I regret I will not be able to finish several goals I had made for the state League, I'm comfortable with the change that has happened with my presidency...a new State office, office staff, greater visibility through press

ABOUT THE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF INDIANA
The League of Women
Voters, a nonpartisan
political organization,

releases, statehouse testimony by advocacy advocates (they replaced Paulette), greater partnering and advocacy, an on-line VOTER, enhancements to the web page, and banners and handouts to be used for displays and meetings - all a good start!

If you have not had the opportunity, please welcome Amy to her new role and support the work she has begun.

I feel I leave you in excellent hands.

With Warm regards,
Susanne

Going Once, Going Twice, Sold!

This isn't the usual conversation heard at the LWVIN Annual Silent Auction, but the room is always buzzing with excitement over whose bid is the highest for the most coveted items. Please consider any items that you would like to donate from your local leagues. All donations are welcome, and we especially look forward to those items that share a little piece of your local League's city, town, or history. Auer prints will also be available for purchase. The auction planning committee thanks you in advance for helping to make this annual event fun for participants. Questions about donations or assisting with the auction? Please email Kimber Sorenson-Brugh at ksorensonbrugh@lwvin.org.

LWVUS Convention

LWVUS Convention is being held in Dallas, Texas. If you have not been to a national convention, it is really an event that you must attend once in your life. The hands-on experience you receive in learning the "League way" cannot be taught or replicated. Many Leaguers from all over the state have signed up to attend; and, there is still time to register to attend convention this year.

A guide to the LWVUS Convention as well as registration information can be found here.
